Scheduling: We will work together to find a time slot that works best for you. That time will then be reserved for you each week. For students who prefer to have a lesson every two weeks, the price will reflect a fee for holding the spot in the schedule regardless of whether or not we meet for a class. Please know that it is difficult for me to find another student to fit into an every other week schedule.

Payments: After our initial lesson, to reserve your selected time, I ask for payment in either 5 or 10 lesson packages. There will be a reduced rate for each lessons for the 10 lesson package.

Payment Methods: Three form of payment are accepted: 1) Cash (preferred); 2) checks made payable to Jason Priset; or 3) Venmo or PayPal (Note: choose 'friends/family' to avoid paying a $5 service charge.)

Once payment is received, you are agreeing to purchase that time slot for the allotted number of lessons regardless of attendance (Please read further for the cancellation policy).

Cancellation Policy

Cancellations & Reschedules

Cancellations must be made more than 24 hours in advance of the scheduled lesson day and time. It is preferable to schedule conflicts one week in advance so an alternate day and time could be considered to have the lesson.

Consistency, in both practicing and a regular lesson schedule, is essential to learning any instrument. I will make every effort to find another time to have a lesson if there is an unexpected schedule change. With a full studio of students and my commitment to the University, make-up times are limited!

 To reschedule please send an email to jasonpriset@gmail.com

Same Day Cancellations and Sickness

Please keep sick kids home for the overall health of other students and the teacher.

I have other options to choose for those inevitable sick days!

 Have a virtual lesson during your usual time or at an alternate time slot when we are both available the same day of the lesson.

 Send a video recording of your assigned pieces during the lesson time, and I will respond back with notes of improvement as well as your next assignment.

Teacher Cancellations: If for any reason I have to unexpectedly cancel, I will provide a make up day.

Snow Days/Inclement Weather: If snow or inclement weather makes travel unsafe I will call a studio "snow day" and suggest a virtual lesson during our usual time. If virtual options are unavailable to you, a make-up date will be offered.
